Dear Sir:

RE: APPRECIATION

The entire fraternity of Nduluku Secondary School greatly appreciate the receipt of the many varied books kindly donated by your good & caring organization:

Sir, we were humbled by the gift and sincerely appreciate the gesture of good will and concern. The 543 students of this secondary school, 390 students in the primary wing, 60 children in the pre-school and the community and large will be the greatest beneficiaries of these books which are now well used and categorized in our library as books of History, Mathematics, English, Religion, Business, Home Science, Law, Medicine, Fiction and Non Fiction books:

Sir, we are very grateful and proud of you for making us powerful in knowledge: Our teachers access these books daily for reference. In some unique style you have brought us into contact with USA and we now aspire to advance very fast. Excellence is now assured among us due to your wonderful motivation kindly you have provided solutions to most of the challenging topics in our education system:

To us these books are great treasure and through them our schools and our community promise to become real center of excellence:

Once again thank you for this great offer as we give our assurance that the books will impact positively to transform the academic, social and psychological dimensions of this community:

May God bless you and long live your kind organization to remember us again at the time of your choice.

Yours Faithfully.
